SUBJECT: ROBERT HEINEMAN
SECURITY MATTER - C

DATE: September 13, 1945.

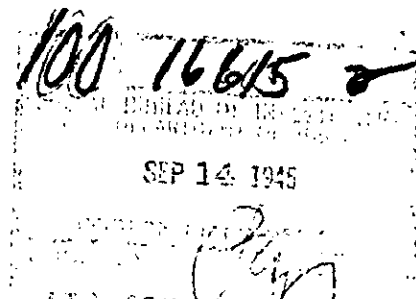

The following references to the subject appear in the files of the Boston Field Office:

100-10316. This is a file on WESTBROOK PEGLER, the newspaper columnist. It sets forth the result of an interview between Special Agent LAWRENCE G. HEALEY, Boston, Mass., and ROBERT B. HEINEMAN, 144 Lakeview Ave., Cambridge, Mass. Mr. HEINEMAN appeared at the Boston Office on the morning of December 18, 1942. HEINEMAN stated that WESTBROOK PEGLER had published an article that offended union officials at the Baldwin Locomotive Plant. The article quoted a letter signed "A Tank Worker," which letter, according to HEINEMAN, made anti-Semitic remarks about President ROOSEVELT and the author had said "it would be better to have Hitler or Mussolini in the White House instead of Roosevelt." HEINEMAN said that the name of the author of the letter was known, although he himself could not reveal it. He was very vague in his statements and no further action was taken on it.

100-7908-Volume 35, Serial 953, Page 2. This is a memorandum from Special Agent JAMES E. BOULWARE, Boston, Mass., May 14, 1945, in that file entitled "Communist Political Association, District No. 1, Boston Field Division, Internal Security - C." The memorandum stated that the writer had received information from a highly confidential source that BEATRICE INGRAM, 362 Harvard Avenue, Cambridge, Mass., had in her possession what appeared to be at least one hundred and probably not more than two hundred leaflets advertising a speech by JAMES W. FORD, National Vice President of the Communist Political Association, who was to speak at St. Bartholomew's Church, Cambridge, Mass., on Friday, April 27, 1945, at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. INGRAM had a number of cards sent out to a number of individuals, among them being BOB HEINEMAN, 144 Lakeview Avenue.

Reurlet 11-13-51.

ROBERT HEINEMAN was interviewed 2-29-52 by SA RICHARD W. DOW. HEINEMAN advised that he felt SILVERMAN was a Communist, but had nothing specific to substantiate his feeling. He identified the subject of this case with the individual he knew from his description and from the fact that the ELLIOTT SILVERMAN he knew resided on Chauncy Street, Cambridge at one time (which is true of the subject of this inquiry). HEINEMAN said he deduced subject was a Communist from the general conversations of those with whom he associated. He could not now recall these associations or conversations. HEINEMAN said he attended a Progressive Party functions at SILVERMAN'S home on Chauncy Street, but never attended a Communist Party meeting with him. HEINEMAN advised he had made a deliberate conscious effort to forget his past Communist Party associations and emotional family difficulties arising therefrom and did not wish to reopen this past.

Los Angeles letter to the Bureau dated Oct. 8, 1954, reports the interview of PAT SHERR, was on June 17, 1954 by Special Agents EDWARD H. MACKENZIE and REX ELLIS.

The letter furnishes the following information concerning the interview:

"Mrs. SHERR advised that when she went to Cambridge, Mass. in 1938, she became a member of the CP there and was assigned to a club, the name of which she does not recall. She stated the club met at the homes of the various members in the Court Square area of Cambridge. She was unable to recall who recruited her into the Party, but stated it may have been one HY GORDON, a Mass. Institute of Technology student, who was the organizer and who gave her the indoctrination lecture.

"She stated she was a member of the CP in Cambridge from about November 1938 to April 1941, at which time she dropped out because she had become disillusioned with the CP and all it stood for. She advised she recalls the following persons as members of her CP group in Cambridge: ROBERT HEINEMAN, CRYSTAL HEINEMAN, LUCY MARTIN, RHODA ALDRICH, HY GORDON, NORMAN LEVINSON and NORMA GROSSENBACH. She stated she is hazy in regard to the spelling of the above names, and she was unable to further identify these persons except to state that ROBERT HEINEMAN and HY GORDON were students at MIT, LUCY MARTIN was the wife of a professor at MIT, and RHODA ALDRICH was a housewife.

"Mrs. SHERR stated she has had no contact with these persons since 1949 and does not know where they are residing at the present time.

"Mrs. SHERR stated she is presently opposed to the CP and its philosophy and is willing to do anything to assist the U. S. against Communism.. She stated she has no liking for the Soviet Union and is absolutely loyal to the U. S."
